

Effective Writing

General Table of Contents

Acknowledgments xv

1 Introduction 1

The Authors	1
Statement of the Case: “Effective Legal Writing” Should be Distinguished from “Good Legal Writing”	2
Prepare to Write Effectively: Habits of Mind and Practice	6
Writing and Effective Billing	17

2 Writing through the Day 21

Facts	22
Forms	28
Letters	35
Specific Kinds of Letters	44

3 Writing through the Trial 51

Writing toward the Trial	52
Writing toward the Settlement	59
Writing to Ask the Judge for an Order: Motions	64
Writing at the End of Trial	73
Writing to Keep Clients Satisfied	76

4 Writing through the Appeal 78

Making the Record	78
The Effective Notice of Appeal	79
Designating the Record	81
The Brief	81
The Appellee's Brief	94
The Reply Brief	95

5 Writing for the Future: Contracts and Wills and Trusts 96

The Memorandum of Contract	96
Wills and Trusts	115

6 Rewrite for Effectiveness 121

Rewrite to Develop Thinking	123
Rewrite Drafts for Readers	131

Checklist Inventory 176

Index of Topics 179

Effective Writing

Detailed Table of Contents

Acknowledgments xv

Introduction 1

The Authors 1

Statement of the Case 2

Prepare to Write Effectively: Habits of Mind and Practice 6

Checklist: Habits of Mind and Practice 6

Notice Effective Writing 7

Get Help from Others on Your Writing 7

Recognize That Writing Is a Powerful Tool for Thinking 8

Understand the Importance of Planning 9

Understand That Revision Is Crucial to Effective Writing
11

Use the Available Technologies—and Recognize their Limitations 12

Dictating Machines 12

Word Processors 13

Fax Machines and Email 14

Electronic Databases 14

Document Assembly and Expert Systems 15

Writing and Effective Billing 17

Writing through the Day 21

Facts 22

The Practice of Fact 22

How to Develop Facts 23

How to Give Telling Accounts of Facts 24

Let the Facts Speak for Themselves 26

Do Not Offer the Opponent's Version 26

1

2

Contents

When You Have “Bad” Facts, Do Not Pretend They Aren’t There	27
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Checklist: Facts	27
Forms	28
The Temptations of Forms	29
Forms [May Not] Cover the Bases	29
Forms [May Not] Save Time	30
Consider the Sources of Forms	30
Forms from Formbooks and Commercial Data Banks	30
Printed Forms	31
Forms From Your Office’s Data Bank	31
Forms Custom-Made by You	32
When Not to Use a Form	32
How to Revise Forms Effectively	33
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Checklist: Forms	34
Letters	35
Effective Lawyers Write Effective Letters	35
Effective Letter Writers Know Precisely What They Want a Letter to DO	35
Effective Letter Writers Imagine the Situations of the Reader	36
General Guidelines for Letters	37
Keep Letters Short	37
Be Alert to Tone	41
Wait a Day to Reply to Any Letter	41
Don’t Sneer and Don’t Threaten	42
How to Induce a Response: A Summary	44
Specific Kinds of Letters	44
The Client Letter	45
The Evaluation Letter	46
Correspondence with Other Lawyers and with Non-Lawyers	47
Technical Letters	48
Title Opinions	48
Estoppel Letters	48
Opinions of Counsel	48
Writing through the Trial	51
Writing toward the Trial	52

3

Effective Writing

Pleadings	52
Discovery Papers	54
Written Interrogatories	55
Requests for Admission	58
Requests to Produce and Inspect	59
Pre-Trial Statements	59
Writing toward the Settlement	59
Trial Memoranda	61
Writing to Support Oral Argument	61
Trial Briefs	63
Writing to Ask the Judge for an Order: Motions	64
Pre-Trial (Dilatory) Motions	65
Motions for Summary Judgment	66
Post-Trial Motions	68
Other Motions	69
The Form of the Motion	70
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Checklist: Motions	72
Writing at the End of Trial	73
Jury Instructions	73
Answers to Questions from the Jury	74
Jury Interrogatories and Special Verdicts	74
Post-Trial Memoranda	75
Form of Judgment	75
Writing to Keep Clients Satisfied	76
Writing through the Appeal	78
Making the Record	78
The Effective Notice of Appeal	79
Designating the Record	81
The Brief	81
The Special Arguments on Appeal	82
The Parts of the Brief	83
The Table of Contents	84
Statement of the Issues Presented for Review	86
Statement of the Case and Statement of the Facts	86
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Checklist: Statement of the Facts	89
The Argument	89
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Checklist: Arguments	93
The Conclusion	94
The Appellee's Brief	94
The Reply Brief	95

4

5

Writing for the Future: Contracts and Wills and Trusts	96
The Memorandum of Contract	96
The Spirit of the Effective Contract	96
When Is a Contract Needed?	98
Remember Who Reads Contracts	98
On the Use of Boilerplate and Printed Forms	99
Boilerplate	99
Printed Forms	100
Contracts That Are Too Effective	101
How to Develop the Memorandum of Contract	102
Should You Keep Drafts?	104
Writing and Negotiating	104
Particular Provisions	106
Keep Some Terms Flexible	107
Do Not Use Terms that Produce Questions of Fact	107
Specify Consideration	107
Address the Possibility of Assignment	107
Consider Whether to Provide for Attorney's Fees	108
Consider Arbitration, Mediation, Alternative Dispute Resolution	108
Be Careful with Provisions Calling for Forfeitures and Penalties	109
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Checklist: Particular Provisions	110
Some Special Cases	110
Documents Organizing a Corporation	110
Letter of Intent and Option to Purchase	112
Title Insurance and Warranties in Deeds	113
The Acknowledgment and the Jurat	115
Acknowledgments	115
Jurats	115
Wills and Trusts	115
Effectiveness of Printed Forms	116
Discovering the Client's Intent	117
Keep a Record of Your Reasons for Recommending Action	118
Keep Up with the Client	118
Style in Wills and Trusts	118

Effective Writing

6

Rewrite for Effectiveness	121
Rewrite to Develop Thinking	123
General Strategies for Rewriting before, during, and after Writing	125
Talk	126
Ask Questions	126
Freewrite	127
Make an Image	128
Read Aloud	128
Outline before Writing a Draft	129
Outline after Writing a Draft	130
Rewrite Drafts for Readers	131
Read Drafts Critically	131
A Rough but Serviceable Glossary of Grammatical Terms	132
Rewrite for Brevity and Conciseness	134
☑ Checklist: Brevity and Conciseness	135
Rewrite for Effective Repetition and Redundancy	136
Rewrite for Effective Sentences	137
Find and Rewrite Unreadable Sentences	137
Rewrite for Effective Verbs and Nouns	140
Reduce Nominalization	140
Increase Active Voice	141
Use Real Verbs: "To Be" or Not "To Be"	142
Rewrite for Emphasis	143
Rewrite for Effective Transitions	143
Rewrite for Effective Organization	145
Rewrite for Effective Diction	146
Brief History of Legal Diction in English	147
Rewrite for Effective Tone	149
How to Avoid Pretentious Language	150
How to Avoid Ineffective Legalese	151
Numerals	152
How to Avoid Ineffective Jargon	152
How to Avoid Sexist Language	154
Rewrite to Avoid Wordiness	158
Effective and Ineffective Platitudes	159
Effective and Ineffective Boilerplate	161
Find the Exact Word	161

Contents

Rewrite for Effective Quotation and Citation	162
Cite Pertinently rather than Scholastically	162
If a Case Is Worth Citing, It Is Worth Quoting	163
Quote rather than Paraphrase	163
Quotations Should Be Short and Pertinent	164
Don't Lead into Your Quotation with the Detailed Citation	164
Don't Just Import a Quotation	165
Don't Quote more than Five Lines	165
Be Absolutely Accurate in Quotation and Citation	166
Integrate Quoted Material	167
Don't Use Footnotes	167
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Checklist: Guidelines for Effective Citation and Quotation	168
Proofread	168
Spell Correctly	168
How to Check Spelling	169
How to Punctuate Effectively	170
Commas and Periods	170
The Apostrophe	171
Exclamation Points	172
Colons and Dashes	173
Parentheses	174
Quotation Marks	174
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Checklist Inventory	176
Index of Topics	179